What To Expect: Online Sponsorship

Lead Times

- Contract: Contracts must be fully signed before your webtile can be posted. Digital sponsorship agreements require a contract separate from your radio schedule contract.
- Approval Process: Webtiles that do not meet required guidelines may result in the delay of your scheduled start date. We recommend that you submit your webtiles for approval several weeks before your start date. Your Michigan Radio Account Executive will work with you throughout the approval process.
- Run Dates: Webtiles run for 1 month increments. If you have a schedule that runs longer than one month, you may use a different creative for each month of your schedule.
- Image: Approved desktop and mobile sized images must be submitted no less than 3 business days before webtile schedule begins.
- Payment: If you have a pre-pay schedule, payment must be received no less than 2 business days before your schedule begins.
- Rotation: Your tile will receive engagement equal to that of the other tiles on our website at any given time. Your digital sponsorship is not based on impressions or clicks, and amount of impressions or clicks are not guaranteed

Design Guidelines

These are not full design guidelines. Ask your AE for a copy of our full guidelines.

- Color: Any creative with a white or near-white background requires a one pixel minimum border within the allotted space to differentiate from the site background
- Font: 1 font should be used throughout tile. Multiple font usage may be rejected.
- Words: 10 words or less – must follow Michigan Radio copy guidelines
- Logo: Your logo must be on your creative
- Graphics: One graphic (in addition to your logo) will be accepted

Specs:

- Sizes: Both sizes of creative are required for any digital schedule
 - Desktop: 300x250
 - Mobile/Responsive: 320x50
- DPI: Required 72 dpi for all creatives
- File Type: JPG or GIF are accepted
- Click-through: You must provide a link that you would like your tile to click-through to.

Making Your Copy Work For You

Sponsorship differs from commercial advertising in both sound and spirit. The public radio audience responds best to straightforward information presented in a concise, clear and sincere manner*.

SPONSORSHIP CREDITS

MAY INCLUDE:

All sponsorship credits must include the legal name of the sponsor, and are preceded by the opening phrase "Support for Michigan Radio comes from..."

Michigan Radio sponsorship announcements are fifteen (15) seconds in length and read live by station announcers.

Information about the company, brand names and descriptions of products and services offered, delivered in a "value neutral", non-promotional manner.

Business location, phone number OR web site address. Years in business. Established slogans stating the company's philosophy or positioning statement in a manner that is keeping with public radio copy guidelines.

Guidelines are based on FCC rules and on Michigan Radio policy. They are designed to protect the non-commercial nature of public radio and preserve the style and sound that public radio listeners value and respond to.

SPONSORSHIP CREDITS

MAY NOT INCLUDE:

CALLS TO ACTION: ie "call", "stop by", "email", "visit", or phrases prompting action.

REFERENCES TO PRICE: ie "free", "10% off", "complimentary", "no down payment"

INDUCEMENTS TO ACT: ie, "while supplies last", "special gift", "on sale", "limited offer"

QUALITATIVE OR COMPARITAVE LANGUAGE OR CLAIMS: ie, "best", "greatest", "most reliable", "oldest", "largest", "can improve/provide/teach/expand..."

OVERSTATED OF SUBJECTIVE LANGUAGE: ie, "fun-filled", "enjoyable", "long awaited", "by popular demand", "authentic character", "informed counsel", "professional advice"

ENDORSEMENTS: ie, "Recommended by New York Times", "the Wall Street Journal says"

CREDENTIALS: ie, "Board certified", "award winning"

WORDS SUCH AS: "you", "your", "our" and "we", are not permitted as part of sponsorship language. It suggests a personal endorsement on the part of the station.
